SHARK CAGE DIVING & VIEWING TOURS IN GANSBAAI

While there are wealth of shark viewing and diving opportunities in South Africa, Gansbaai shark cage diving (and Shark Alley in particular), is the best of the best. Shark Alley is a channel of water between two islands: Dyer Island and Geyser Rock. As Dyer Island is home to 50 000 Cape Fur seals, it provides ample hunting opportunities for the apex predator. As such, Gansbaai is the world's capital for Great White Sharks and boasts the largest population of these majestic animals year-round.

SHARK CAGE DIVING & VIEWING TOURS IN FALSE BAY

With Shark Zone you stand the chance to catch sight of an exhilarating Great White Shark hunt. What is more, you can come face-to-face with these incredible predators through merely the bars of a cage in one of our cage diving trips.

Located close to False Bay, the dense population of Cape Fur Seals on the aptly named Seal Island attracts the Great Whites, making this thrilling experience possible.

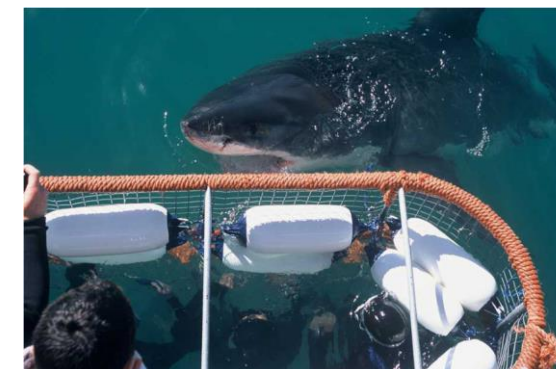

CAPE PENINSULA TOURS

If there is just one tour you decide to do when visiting Cape Town, it should be the tour of the Cape Peninsula. As Sir Francis Drake described it "the fairest cape of them all." Spend a half day or full day touring the magnificent coastline of the Cape Peninsula. We will also take you to the spectacular Cape Peninsula Nature Reserve which boasts the mythical meeting place of the two great oceans. Once again, our tours are private & personalized.

WINELANDS TOUR

Experience the true Winelands classic: Stellenbosch and Franschhoek! Spend your day sampling fantastic wines and enjoying a delicious lunch on a beautiful wine estate. Learn about South African wine and take in the breath-taking landscape in the Winelands. Again, a private & personalized tour is guaranteed.

Seal Snorkelling is one of Cape Town's most popular adventure activities to do while you are visiting the Mother City. We supply you with all the gear and take you by boat to Duiker Island / Hout Bay where there is a breeding colony of about 15 000 Cape Fur seals waiting to swim with you.

The Eastside City is the underdog that is finally coming out to play with its new quirky and fun bars and restaurants popping up in every corner. The Eastside is getting the attention it deserves and is becoming the new hot place to be with unique grocery shops and stores. It is a must see when coming to Cape Town as it is not only becoming a popular area but is also enriched with lots of history that made Cape Town the place it is today.

What was formerly an industrial-commercial area on the outskirts of the CBD, Cape Town's East City is changing into a cool creative hub where cutting-edge galleries, chic cafés and grungy dive bars rub shoulders with sports-car dealerships and mechanics workshops.

It is the tract where the CBD meets District Six, namely Roeland, Buitenkant and Harrington Streets. It is where you will find hipsters and high rollers soaking up the scene.

Some Places to look out for:

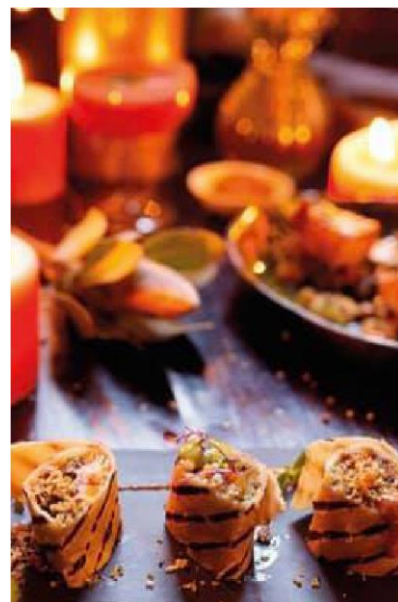

Truth was one of the first micro coffee roasters in Cape Town. Coffee is the centre of their soul. Fear not if you are not into coffee, you can drink beer or tea or the most amazing apple juice in Cape Town! The main thing is that this spot is not to be missed. The decor is steam punk and it is a seriously fun space. The staff wear wonderfully crazy outfits, they do insane gourmet breakfasts and serve them all day.

New York Bagels is the oldest and most famous producer of real bagels in Cape Town. They are also famous for the best Cheesecake! This family have been selling bagels in Cape Town since 1940!

Nude Foods is just a few steps off Harrington Street. It is Cape Town's first packaging free grocer. They have now opened their back courtyard for drinks and snacks, the vegan Salome is fantastic!!

At Downtown Ramen it feels like you have entered an uncluttered zen like space! The ramen with the pork belly is amazing and the Ramen bowls are HUGE! Do not have a starter if you have a small appetite!

Kloof Street is one of those eternally cool spots in Cape Town. It is known for great boutiques, cool galleries and of course, fantastic restaurants. This is the place to meet a wide variety of people from all over and get a true sense of the youth that live in Cape Town. Kloof Street has everything you can dream of, hairdressers, bars, galleries, restaurants, a shopping centre and even a pharmacy, talk about convivence! Kloof Street is also known to be the perfect place for First Thursdays!

Asoka is a restaurant and bar where leisure meets mystique. As Table Mountain towers over our roof, the deck is the perfect spot to unwind and watch Kloof Street spill down from our doorstep. Inside our unassuming shell, in the glow of candlelight –that is where the magic happens; where food awakens the senses and cocktails keep them enticed. Asoka is the playground of celebration and the home of the city’s most seductive house music.

Walking into Rick’s Café American has the same feeling as walking into a friend’s home for dinner. We are situated in the heart of cosmopolitan Cape Town on Kloof Street in a charming 135-year-old Victorian building, decorated in a style reminiscent of the 1942 movie classic “Casablanca”. The menu presents a seasonal selection of Global Tapas and a wide variety of dishes ranging from mouth-watering Salads, Gourmet Burgers, fresh Seafood, mature Prime Steaks and Moroccan and Mediterranean Specialties.

Lekker Vegan is dedicated to making you LEKKER plant-based comfort foods with the best meat, cheese, and dairy alternatives, so you will not feel like you are missing out!
